APOLLO
INFECTIOUS
DISEASE
CONFERENCE

Endorsed by the Clinical Infectious Diseases Society

Apollo Hospitals, Chennai is one of the premier hospitals in India providing quality services for over 35 years. It is one of the few hospitals in India with a comprehensive Infectious Diseases Department involved in the management of infections & infection control for the past 2 decades.

The department is served by 8 consultants & 4 registrars providing round the clock services. The areas of expertise include tropical medicine, TB, HIV/AIDS, health care acquired infections, drug resistant infections, invasive fungal infections & infection control. It's one of the four chosen centres for training candidates in Infectious Diseases by The National Board of Examination & The Tamil Nadu Dr. M.G.R. Medical University.

Apollo Infectious Disease Conference 2019 with CME credits will encompass all aspects pertaining to the management of infection control. It would be very useful for practicing physicians, clinicians interested in infectious diseases, microbiologists and postgraduates in internal medicine.
